

David Hall is a partner with DHG Healthcare, the national healthcare consulting practice of Dixon Hughes Goodman LLP. He is based in the Winston-Salem, NC office and has been with the firm since 2002.

David is part of the firm's hospital reimbursement practice. In this role, he leads many of the firm's larger hospital cost report preparation engagements and reimbursement special projects. David is the leader of the firm's Hospital Cost Report Training program and is involved in a variety of internal and external professional education events.

Previously, David spent almost four years in the audit department of a Big Four accounting firm in Virginia, focusing primarily on hospital and health system clients. He served in various finance and operational capacities in private industry prior to joining DHG.
